

Executive Career Transition

© tèn company

Step 1, New start

During the first step, the specifications of the project are determined. There's attention for the personal changes and mutual expectations.

Step 5, Networking

We provide information about networking. We coach on improving skills for better networking and we actively assist in expanding a professional network.

Step 2, Researching your industry

During this step, the industry and developments in someone's profession are being researched in a structured manner.

Step 6, Managing headhunters

We provide insights on how headhunters work. We coach to use headhunters as a stepping stone.

Step 3, Career choice

We provide coaching and structure in making a career choice.

Step 7, Interviewing and negotiating

Preparing for interviews and negotiating skills.

Step 4, Me inc.

All the personal marketing materials are prepared. The sales brochure (CV), the exit statement and positioning statement (elevator pitch).

Step 8, Back to work

Coaching for making a new start in an organization. Advice for the first 100 days. Executive coaching on leadership if requested.

Executive Career
Transition

Versie 1.1, Q4 2009

property and copyright
tèn company

www.tencompany.org

tèn
company

+ change management
+ executive coaching
+ executive career transition

every step counts